Recital 2026

Q&A

The Theater

- Where (location) is the dance recital show?

Coral Springs Arts Center, 2855 Coral Springs Dr, Coral Springs, FL 33065

- 1 parent only may escort dancer to check in.
- 1 parent with wristband only may pick up dancer after the show.

- When will the doors open at the dance recital?

30 mins prior to show.

- Will my child be checked in and out at the day of dress rehearsal and Recital day performance?

Yes. This is called the Dismissal Process in which during Dress Rehearsal-students will be dismissed after all of their numbers have been rehearsed (upon teacher approval). Day of Recital students will be dismissed by their STAGE MOM immediately after the shows finale.

- Where is my dancer's dressing room?

All students will be assigned a dressing room, but will not be returning to dressing rooms after the show.

- Will there be separate dressing room for the boys?

Yes. There is a separated area backstage for the boys.

- Are we allowed to videotape and will we be allowed to take photographs of our dancer's performances?

There will be no cameras permitted at the recital! Every family will be receiving a copy of all 3 shows so no recording is necessary!

- Will there be snacks and water sold at the dance recital during intermission?

Yes, there is a concession stand.

- How many times will I see my dancer on the stage?

Each dancer is on stage 1 time for each class they participate in. Then all dancers participate in finale.

- What happens if my dancer decides they do not want to dance once they are on stage?

The dance continues regardless.

- Who cares for my child backstage and what can they bring if they get hungry?

Stage Moms/DG Staff & yes, they may bring clean snacks that don't have sauces, food coloring or can get on their costumes. Nothing greasy, sticky, with food coloring or with sauces please. Bring CLEAN snacks in a disposable snack bag like animal crackers, pretzels, apples, etc.

- Where do I pick up my child after they are done dancing?

Pick up is in front of the Green Room (outside). After the show, no early dismissal.

- Can I send another parent to pick up my child?

Children will only be released to the adult with the child name on wristband.

Tickets

- How does seating work at the theater?

Seating charts will be viewable when you purchase tickets online so that you can choose your seats. Be advised that there are no middle rows in the main floor seating chart. The lines seen in the seating chart are to show the curving of the seat rows.

- At what age do you require to purchase a ticket to watch show?

Children 2 and older require tickets. We do not want to disturb the families behind you.

- Does my dancer need to purchase a ticket too and is there a recital fee?

There is no recital fee for performers. They do not need a ticket unless they are watching another show they are not performing in.

- Are tickets available for wheelchair seating?

Yes. Seating is located by the back of the main floor in the auditorium and throughout the theater, see seating charts.

- Do you limit the number of tickets each family can buy and is there assigned seating?

Tickets will be sold by simply selecting the number of seats wanted.

- How do I retrieve my tickets?

Purchased tickets will be released after balance is paid and able to be printed at home. Printing them is the fastest way into the theater on recital day but may also be retrieved via mobile device at the door.

- What if tickets sell out before I get my mine?!

Tickets don't typically sell out due to multiple shows. The theater is large with 3 levels ample seating. The best seats in the house do sell quickly, so grab your seats as soon as you are able.

- If I do not use a ticket can I receive a refund?

All ticket purchases are a final sale and there are no refunds given.

Procedures

- Is dress rehearsal mandatory?

Yes. All dancers are required to be at dress rehearsal in order to participate in recital. No exceptions.

- When is the deadline to submit Ads/messages in the recital booklet for my dancer?

All ad requests must be done online at www.recital-ads.com no matter how you paid for your ad and even if it was part of a package. Your ad creation is taken from this submission. Reserve ad by 4/25 complete ad material 5/11. Please make sure to follow this step to not miss being in the program.

- Where do we pick up our flower orders or our cake orders? Where will I pick up our recital shirts?
There will be Dancer's Gallery tables set up inside the lobby as soon as you walk in with flowers/cakes. The recital shirts will be distributed back stage from the stage moms within their groups.

- What do stage moms do?

They are assigned to a group of students. They must attend to all the children they are assigned to. They escort their groups from the green room to the stage and back to keep them safe.

- Do I get a refund or a credit if for any reason my dancer cannot make it to the recital?

NO. All Sales are Final.

- Will my child be able to participate in the recital if my balance is not completely paid?

No. All balances must be satisfied prior to the show. If you have a balance and a family member purchases a ticket online please know that we will not release tickets for that performer unless account is in good standing.

Be Prepared

- Must arrive in costume, hair and makeup ready.

- How do I make my dancer's tutu look nice?

Hang it upside down and steam it. If you have a platter tutu you may place it underneath your bed.

- What color tights does my dancer wear?

Depends on the costume. The tag on their costume will indicate what color they need.

- What should my dancer's hair look like?

Part on middle with a low secured bun. Unless told otherwise by instructor.

- Do the dancers wear underwear under their costumes?

No. Nude garment can be used if necessary.

- Should my dancer wear make up for the dress rehearsal and for the recital?

Yes! Full make-up for both days.

- What kind of jewelry is allowed on my dancer? Will there be nail polish allowed?

No jewelry is allowed including stud earrings! No nail polishes!

Additional Notes

- Please be sure that your dancer's costumes are unwrinkled by either steaming them with a steamer or by turning on a hot shower and hanging your dancer's costumes in the hot bathroom to get them unwrinkled.

- Please write your dancer's name or at least initials in his/her dance shoes and all of their belongings, so that if anything gets misplaced, we can get them back to you.

- If there are any tags inside your dancer's outfit that are visible when your dancer puts it on, please cut them out.

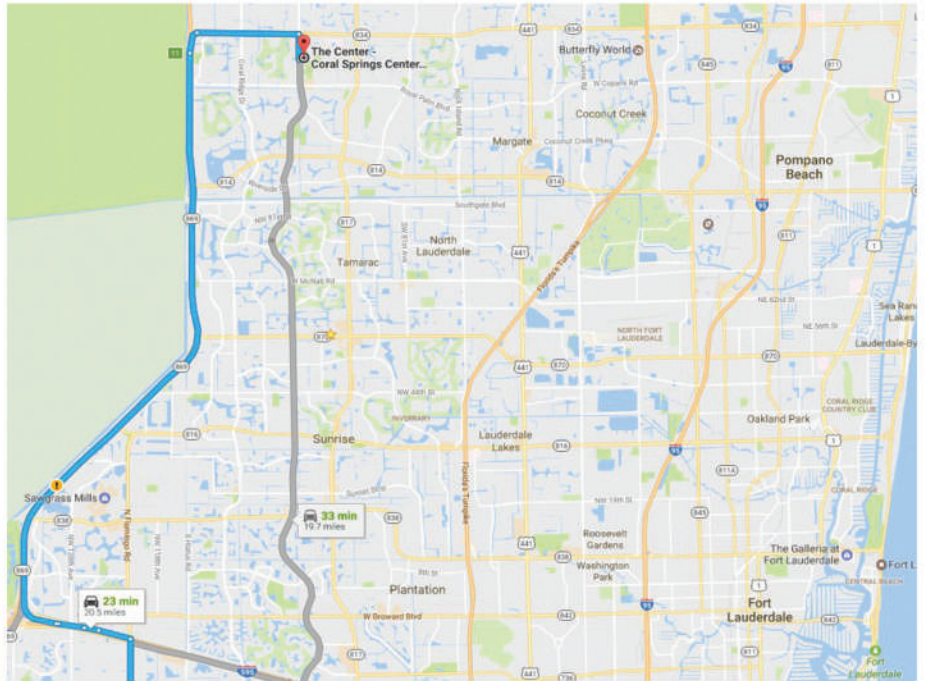

- If you have a hair accessory, please be sure to use bobby pins to secure it in place, so that it does not fall off onstage. Hair accessories always go on dancer's right side.

- If packing a bag of snacks, ONLY pack food & drinks that won't stain such as dry snacks and water.

Coral Springs Center for the Arts opened in 1990. In January of 1996, construction began on a four million dollar renovation, transforming it into a first class performing and visual arts venue by the architectural firm, Zeidler Roberts Partnership. Known for their design of the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts in West Palm Beach, they created an intimate 1,471 seat theater with a fully enclosed balcony to envelope the audience chamber, producing a kinship between the stage and seating area.
